

The EYFS is the framework that sets the standard for early years providers from birth to 5 to ensure that children learn and develop well and are kept healthy and safe. At Woodcot our curriculum incorporates everything we want the children to experience, learn and be able to do. It meets all the requirements in the EYFS Statutory Framework and has the flexibility to allow us to respond to children's interests and needs.

The four overarching principles of Unique Child, Positive Relationships, Enabling Environment and Learning and Development underpin our curriculum

We consider children's individual needs, interests and development in order to plan our environment and experiences in all of the seven areas of learning and development.

These are:

Prime Areas:

Communication and Language

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

Physical Development

Specific Areas:

Literacy

Mathematics

Understanding the World

Expressive Art and Design

The Prime areas are the foundation for all other areas of learning and development. The Specific Areas of learning provide a broad curriculum and strengthen the Prime Areas.

The EYFS is about what children learn as well as how they learn. Children in the EYFS learn by playing and exploring, being active and through creative and critical thinking. There are opportunities for children to develop these Characteristics of Effective throughout our curriculum and through our provision. Our intent is for children to become lifelong learners.

Development Matters is also used to inform our curriculum and ensure we are offering a broad range of learning experiences for our children.

An 'In the moment Planning Approach' is used to plan for children based on their current interests and fascinations. We provide an engaging learning environment and stimulating experiences to promote curiosity and develop language skills.
